THE [Numb. 787.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, June 5, 1760.

BOSTON, May 19.

WHEN the Governor was at Penobſcot the laſt Spring, in order to take Poſſeſſion of the Country and build a Fort therein, he ſent the following Meſſage to the Penobſcot Indians by ſome of the Tribe who had come in.—Tell your People that I am come to build a Fort at Penobſcot and will make the Land Engliſh.—I am able to do it—and I will do it; if they ſay I ſhall not, let them come and defend their Land now in Time of War—take this red Flag to remember what I ſay: When I have built my Fort and ſet down at Penobſcot, if ever there be an Engliſh Man killed by your Indians—you muſt all from that Hour fly from the Country, for I will ſend a Number of Men on all Sides the River, ſweep it from one End to the other and hunt ye all out.—

Gave them a red Flag.

As to the People of Penobſcot, I ſeek not their Favour nor fear them, for they can do me neither good nor harm—I am ſorry for their Diſtreſs and would do them good, let them become Engliſh, they and their Wives and Families, and come and live under the Protection of the Fort, and I will protect them, they ſhall have Wigwams and planting Ground near the Fort, and may hunt as uſual, but the Engliſh ſhall hunt alſo; they ſhall not interfere with one another's hunt, when they hunt ſeparate, and they may hunt together when they chuſe it. If they will live under the Engliſh Laws I will make ſuch of their Sungama's as they ſhall chooſe Juſtices, to do Juſtice—to right what may be wrong, and to keep Peace among yourſelves—and when any Thing happens wrong between the Engliſh and Indians, an Engliſh Juſtice and an Indian Juſtice ſhall meet and do right between them, you ſhall have a free Market for your Furrs and Skins, and the Price ſhall be ſet by Agreement.

Take this white Flag and remember this.

Gave them a white Flag.

And this Spring a Number of ſaid Indians came in, and the following Terms of Accommodation being agreed upon were ſigned in the Council Chamber on Tueſday the 29th Day of April by his Excellency on the one Part, and by four of the Indians who came as Deputies from the Tribe on the other.

I THOMAS POWNALL, Eſq; his Majeſty's Governor of the Province of the Maſſachuſetts-Bay, do hereby in his Majeſty's Name, and on Behalf of the Province aforeſaid, receive into his Majeſty's Protection within and under this his Government, all ſuch Indians of the Penobſcot Tribe or their Allies, as do or ſhall enter into the Engagements in theſe Preſents ſpecified, and as do or ſhall ſign the ſame, and I do hereby promiſe to them all the Rights, Benefits, Privileges and Advantages which Britiſh Subjects do or ought to enjoy:—Furthermore, for their Encouragement to employ themſelves in hunting, they may be aſſured of a conſtant Vent or Sale of all their Furrs and Skins and other Truck at the full Price they ſhall be worth, and a conſtant Supply of Goods neceſſary or convenient for them, either from Fort Pownall or from ſuch other Places as may be appointed for that Purpoſe.

T. POWNALL.

WE the under-written Indians in Conſideration of the Protection we are hereby admitted to, and of enjoying the Rights and Privileges hereby granted, do for Ourſelves and Families agree as follows:

1*ſt*. We acknowlege ourſelves to all Intents and Purpoſes and without any Reſtrictions or Limitations, to be Subjects of the Crown of Great-Britain; and do hereby Promiſe and Engage to be and to remain true and faithful to his Majeſty and to the Government of this Province.

2*d*. That as we have been in open Rebellion and Hoſtility, and have thereby forfeited all our Lands, and as Poſſeſſion has been taken of all our Lands in this our Time of open Rebellion, and is now rightfully held, that we acknowledge this Right and relinquiſh all Claim to ſaid Lands, and only pray that we may have a Privilege to hunt, fowl, and fiſh, within ſuch Limits as ſhall be aſſign'd us, but not to the Excluſion of any other his Majeſty's Subjects, and alſo to erect Wigwams or other Buildings to dwell in, and to plant or otherwiſe improve ſuch Land as may be aſſigned for our Support, and we do hereby engage to fix our Dwelling in ſuch Place near unto or in Sight of Fort Pownall, and to remain there.

3*d*. We Promiſe and Engage that we and each of us will utterly quit and relinquiſh all Alliance and Correſpondence with the French, and in Caſe of any Invaſion or Attack made by the French or any other Enemy on the Eaſtern Frontiers of this Province, we will join with the Engliſh in every Act of Duty and Loyalty towards the Government.

4*th*. If any one who now enters or ſhall enter into theſe Engagements ſhall commit any Hoſtility or Injury upon or againſt any of his Majeſty's Engliſh Subjects, the Offender ſhall forthwith be delivered up to the Authority of this Government, and ſhall be ſubjected to ſuch and no other Puniſhment as by the Laws of this Province an Engliſh Subject in ſuch Caſe would be liable to ſuffer.

KEHOWERT,
JOSEPH MARIE,
ZACHETIEN,
ZACHEBESEN.

As none are actually admitted to the Terms of Protection and anſwerable for the Conditions of the Submiſſion but thoſe who do actually ſign,—the Indians deſired that the Inſtrument might be ſent down and kept at Fort Pownall, that all the Reſt might ſign, and that it might remain there as a Memorial to which they might alway have Acceſs.

The Indians ſay that at preſent their Tribe conſiſts of 5 Sachems and 73 Warriors.

The foregoing is an Abſtract of his Excellency the Governor's Tranſactions with the Penobſcot Indians, as of Record.

Atteſt, A. OLIVER, Secr.

On Saturday the 17th Inſtant, the following Gentlemen, viz. Samuel Welles, Andrew Oliver, Thomas Hancock, Thomas Hubbard, Francis Borland, John Phillips, Harriſon Gray, Stephen Greenleaf, James Pitts, Joſhua Henſhaw, and John Rowe, Eſquires; Dr. Sylveſter Gardiner, and Mr. John Scollay, waited upon his Excellency the Governor, in Behalf of upwards of One Hundred and Fifty Merchants and others, who had ſigned an Addreſs to his Excellency, and preſented the ſame to him. The ſaid Addreſs is as follows:

The ADDRESS of the Merchants and others, trading in the Town of Boſton.

To his Excellency THOMAS POWNALL, Eſq; Captain General and Commander in Chief, in and over his Majeſty's Province of the Maſſachuſetts-Bay, in New-England, and Vice-Admiral of the ſame.

May it pleaſe your Excellency.

THE happy Influence of your Adminiſtration, while it has extended itſelf to every Branch of the public Intereſt, has been too ſenſibly felt by the Merchants and others concerned in Trade, to allow us to part with your Excellency, without the moſt particular Acknowledgments of Gratitude and Reſpect.

Amidſt your various and important Engagements, you have with the kindeſt Care attended to the Exigences of Commerce, and avoided every Detention that might prove detrimental to it. With great Prudence you have anſwered the Demand of Seamen for his Majeſty's Service; and yet preſerved us from the Burden of Naval Impreſſes; a Burden which we have ſometimes ſeverely felt: Nor has any Thing in your Excellency's Power been wanting, that might prevent, or ſoften and alleviate, the Inconveniencies and Hardſhips to which Trade is expoſed in a Time of War. Theſe are ſome of the Benefits of your Adminiſtration, which we cannot ſoon forget, nor remember without the warmeſt Senſe of our Obligation to your Excellency.

It is far from being improbable that Opportunities will meet You, tho' at a Diſtance from us, of promoting the Welfare of this Province, particularly it's Commercial Intereſt. And we cannot but indulge the pleaſing Hopes, that your Excellency, ſenſible of ſome peculiar Diſadvantages and Preſſures that now lie upon Trade, will ever be ready to expreſs your kind and favourable Regard, to a People who follow you with their ardent Wiſhes for the Safety of your Perſon, and the Succeſs and Splendor of your public Employments.

To which ADDRESS his Excellency was pleaſed to return the following Anſwer.

GENTLEMEN,

I THANK you for this obliging Addreſs.—I have alway viewed the Colonies as eſtabliſh'd, in order to extend the Trade as well as the Dominions of the Mother Country; and have therefore alway in that View thought it my Duty as Governor, to promote the Intereſt of Trade here. I have ſeen with concern the Embarraſsments with which it is entangled, and the Difficulties under which it labours, eſpecially in time of War; and have therefore done every Thing in my power, within my own Department, to eaſe and relieve it: And I will never omit any Opportunity that any future Situation may give me to ſerve this Town and Province in their true Commercial Intereſt.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, Feb. 23. The following is a Copy of the Letter, which, at the Deſire of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of this City, was wrote by the Lord Provoſt to our Repreſentative in Parliament, deſiring his warmeſt Endeavours to get a National Militia eſtabliſhed in this Part of the United Kingdom.

SIR, Edinburgh, Feb. 21, 1760.

MY Brethren, the Magiſtrates and Council of this City, unanimouſly ordered me, by their Act of Yeſterday, to communicate to you their Sentiments with Regard to a Matter of the greateſt Importance, not only to this City, which you repreſent in Parliament, but to this Part of the United Kingdom.

We have beheld, with the Sentiments which became free Men and loyal Subjects, the formidable Preparations carried on by the French, during this War, with an avowed Intention of invading Great-Britain; and though, under God, theſe Attempts have hitherto been defeated, by the Vigilance of the Adminiſtration, and Valour of our Fleets, whilſt our regular Forces were uſefully employed at a Diſtance; yet many Events have happened which convince us, that no wiſe Nation ought to truſt for Protection to its Fleets and regular Forces alone.

We are perſuaded, that in Times of Danger, a National Militia is not only the moſt conſtitutional, but the moſt effectual Security againſt the Enemies of our Liberty, both foreign and domeſtic. The Vigour, the Extent, and the Succeſs of the Operations of the laſt Campaign, have been owing, in a great Degree, to the internal Security which the Nation has acquired, by the happy Eſtabliſhment of a Militia in the Southern Part of the Iſland; the Inhabitants of this Part of the Kingdom are animated with no leſs Ardour, to manifeſt their Zeal in Defence of the Conſtitution, and in Support of a gracious King, from whoſe auſpicious Reign they juſtly date the Commencement of many of the moſt valuable Bleſſings they enjoy.

The Situation of this Country renders the Eſtabliſhment of a Militia ſtill more eſſential to our Safety, than it is to thoſe Parts of the Iſland, which already enjoy that Means of Defence. Upon every Alarm of Danger, the great Body of regular Forces will, and ought to be drawn towards the Capital of Britain, the Seat of Government, and the Center of Wealth; our extenſive and unguarded Coaſts muſt lie open to Invaſion, and a pitiful Armament, which would be the Object of Contempt to any People trained to Arms, may ſpread ſuch a Deſolation as would be fatal to us, and create ſuch a Diverſion as would be dangerous to the whole Kingdom.

The vigorous Efforts which our Enemies are preparing to make, againſt the enſuing Campaign, give us reaſon, beſides, to dread, that, without ſuch an immediate Eſtabliſhment, this Part of the Kingdom may ſoon be expoſed to the utmoſt Calamity and Diſgrace.

On all theſe Accounts we hope, that the Wiſhes of a brave and free People will not be diſappointed; that this Part of the Kingdom will be ſuffered no longer to remain expoſed to unneceſſary Danger; and that, by extending the Laws, eſtabliſhing a Militia to Scotland, its Safety will be provided for, and an important Addition be made to the Strength and Security of the whole Iſland.

For this Purpoſe the Magiſtrates and Town Council did unanimouſly agree, that they would uſe their utmoſt Endeavours, ſo far as their Example and Influence doth reach, to carry the Scheme for eſtabliſhing a National Militia into Execution; and therefore they have directed me to write to you, as our Repreſentative in Parliament; recommending it to you, to give your utmoſt Attention to any Bill that may be brought into Parliament, for having a Militia eſtabliſhed in Scotland, and to endeavour to procure the ſame to be paſſed into a Law, upon the ſame Footing with that in England, where the good and ſalutary Effects of that Inſtitution have been already felt, to the great Satisfaction of his Majeſty's Subjects, and all the zealous Friends of the preſent happy Conſtitution.

I am, Sir, &c.

Paris, Feb. 12. The Miniſtry and the Captains of the Navy are mutually diſpleaſed with one another. The Letter which M. Berryer, Secretary for the Affairs of the Navy, wrote to the Officers in the River Villaine, was preceded by ſeveral others. The firſt from that Miniſter to M. de la Broſſe, was dated December 12, 1759, and was as follows:

"I received, Sir, yours of the 4th Inſtant, acquainting me with the Situation of the Ships that took Shelter in the Villaine, and of the Difficulty of getting them down the River. I laid your Letter before the King at Marly. His Majeſty could not help ſaying to me, that he could not conceive why you put into ſuch a Place; which, all Circumſtances conſidered, he thought a very improper one. He charges you to examine carefully what Methods can be employed to get the Ships out, and carry them to Breſt, if not altogether, which without Doubt will be difficult, at leaſt one at a Time; which may be done. His Majeſty added, that the State of his Finances would not ſupport the Expence of keeping Ships in Commiſſion in the Villaine. He would chuſe rather to order them to be laid up, and the Officers and Seamen to be diſcharged, than to continue ſuch a heavy and fruitleſs Expence; reſerving to himſelf to take ſuch Meaſures, and employ ſuch Officers, as he might think proper, to bring them out of that Place. But he deferred giving me his final Orders on this Head, till you ſhould have anſwered this Letter.

"I therefore earneſtly deſire that you would anſwer it minutely, and with Preciſion. You muſt be ſenſible how nearly it concerns you to get the King's Ships, as ſoon as poſſible, out of this Place with Safety; and how mortifying it would be to you to ſee others employed in this Service. The Intereſt I take in whatever concerns you makes me wiſh that you would think of the Matter ſeriouſly, and that you may ſucceed in it.

"His Majeſty was much offended, that, without aſking, or waiting for his Orders, you took upon you to give ſome Officers Leave to go on Shore. He orders me to make out a Liſt of all who ſhall leave their Ships, before he has ordered them to be put out of Commiſſion, that they may be laid before him; for no Officer is to go on Shore while the Ships are detained." I am, &c.

M. de la Broſſe did not think it became him to anſwer alone this Letter, in which every Capt. was concerned. The whole Body of them, therefore, ſent an Anſwer, dated December 17, in the following Terms.

"In Conſequence of the Miniſter's Letter, all the Captains met, and after mature Conſideration of the manifold Inconveniencies of getting the Ships out of the Villaine, we are unanimouſly of Opinion, that notwithſtanding the preſſing Motives for complying with the King's Intentions, it is abſolutely impoſſible to fulfil them while the Enemy continues in theſe Seas; and we cannot expect that the bad Weather at this Seaſon will force them to quit their Station; for in the Bay of Quiberon they can ride as ſafe, they acknowledge themſelves, as in any Harbour in England, eſpecially from the Weſterly Winds, which are the moſt violent, and which hinder us from getting out; we being obliged to wait till a favourable Wind coincide with a high Tide, as it happily did the Day we carried the King's Ships out of Danger. The favourable Winds from North-Eaſt to South-Eaſt, which are abſolutely neceſſary for their getting out, ſuffer the Enemy to ſtand in ſhore, and to form a Chain at the Entrance of the Bay, which is near a League over, and hath only one Channel, too narrow for more than two Ships to paſs a-breaſt: And the Enemy being without us, the Ship that ſhould have once got through, could not get back, but muſt either run aſhore, or be taken. The ſame Difficulty ſubſiſts in the caſe of a ſingle Ship, which, with the Advantage of all the moſt favourable Circumſtances ſhould attempt to get through, there being always three of the Enemy's Ships at Anchor at the Diſtance of two Leagues, who make Signals to the reſt, who are farther out. The very firſt Motions we make are known to this Squadron, which, according to the Reports daily brought to us, hath never conſiſted of leſs than twenty Ships.

"Notwithſtanding the perſonal Intereſt of each Captain, not to have his Ship laid up in a Place ſo diſtant from the Department to which he belongs, we are concerned only for the Good of the Service. We find that the Difficulties above mentioned render it impoſſible for us to get out, if the Enemy have a Mind to hinder it.

"We read, with the utmoſt Concern, that Part of the Miniſter's Letter, which ſeems to make us reſponſible for putting in here. It was no more in our Power to chuſe where to put in, than it was to chuſe the Place to engage in; the only Alternative we had left us, at the Entrance of the Night, was, either the certain Deſtruction of the Ships with their Crews, or putting in here, with which we are reproached, as if it had been premeditated."

BOSTON, May 19.

This Moment an Expreſs came to Town from Albany, who brings an Account, That General Amherſt had certain Intelligence that Monſ. Vaudreuille, with an Army of about 15000 Men, had marched, from all Parts of Canada, in order to attack Quebec; on receiving this News the General immediately ordered the Troops to proceed forward.

Wedneſday Morning Captain Scott arrived here from Newcaſtle, but laſt from Plymouth, which Place he left the 27th of March, with 200 Sail of Merchantmen, bound to different Ports, being under Convoy of Admiral Holmes, in the Cambridge, with ſeveral other Men of War and Tranſports, having on board 600 Troops, deſigned for the Weſt-Indies; alſo Commodore Sir James Douglaſs, with ſeveral Men of War, to relieve Commodore Moore; and the Vanguard, to join Lord Colvill in the River St. Lawrence.

Captain Scott in his Paſſage, off the Weſtern Iſlands, met with one of his Majeſty's 50 Gun Ships, bound to England; having under her Care a French Letter of Marque Ship, which ſhe had taken.——He alſo fell in with his Majeſty's Ship Penzance, which was bound to join Commodore Lord Colvill's Fleet up the River, but having ſprung a Leak, it obliged them to go into Halifax: The Prize had 40 Hands, whom they took on board the Penzance, to aſſiſt the Crew in Pumping.

Captain Scott heard nothing of Capt. M'Adam, in a Brig, bound from London for this Place, who had put into Plymouth in February laſt: It is therefore ſuppoſed ſhe ſailed before he got there. It was reported at Plymouth, that there was a Probability of an Accommodation with the Ruſſians, and that the Fleet to the Baltic would be ſtopped.

Yeſterday Morning Capt. Cotting arrived here, in 7 Days from Halifax; by him we learn, that the Penzance parted with the Vanguard, of 70 Guns, and ſeveral Frigates, off Cape-Ray, bound directly to Quebec, where no Doubt they are all arrived before this Time. Lord Colvill, with his Fleet, bound up to Quebec, was in the Gulph of St. Lawrence the Beginning of this Month.

Friday laſt in the Afternoon, the Racehorſe Bomb, Captain M'Cartney, arrived here with Diſpatches from Quebec, to his Excellency General Amherſt, which were forwarded immediately; and the next Morning Captain M'Cartney ſet out for Albany.—As we have no Accounts from Authority, relative to the Situation of Affairs in that Quarter, we think it moſt prudent not to publiſh any for the preſent.——The Racehorſe left Quebec the firſt of May, and put into Halifax, from whence ſhe arrived here in five Days.

The Ice in the River St. Lawrence broke up the 6th of April, and the Navigation was all clear when the Racehorſe came down the River.

By Captain Watts in 11 Days from Louiſburg, but laſt from Halifax in Eight, we learn, that a ſmall Privateer of 6 Guns, out of the Gulf of Canſo, has taken a large Sloop belonging to Mr. Kingſbury and Newbury (bound from Philadelphia for Quebec) William Campbell Maſter; alſo a Schooner called the Bellona, belonging to Louiſburg; and that ſundry other Veſſels were chaſed by her, but being better Sailers, got clear. Captain Watts alſo informs, that all the Veſſels bound up the River, were ſafe arrived at Louiſburg before he ſailed, after having attempted it, and being prevented, by Reaſon of the great Quantity of Ice coming down the River.

We hear that Charles Ward Apthorp, Eſq; of New-York, Merchant, upon hearing of the Calamity which had befallen this Town by the late dreadful Fire, generouſly ordered his Agent here to pay to the Gentlemen appointed to receive the Donations of charitably diſpoſed Perſons, the Sum of One Hundred Pounds, Lawful Money, for the Relief of the Sufferers. [75 l. Sterling.]

We hear from Penobſcot, that two of our Hunters were lately killed at a little Diſtance from Fort Pownall, by the Indians.

His Excellency Governor Lawrence, by his Letter dated Halifax, April 29, acquaints his Excellency the Governor, that agreeable to his Application, he had recommended the Caſe of the Sufferers by the late great Fire at Boſton, to the Conſideration of the People; and that they had collected 488 Pieces of Eight, and one Rial, which is remitted hither.

NEW-LONDON, May 16.

On Monday laſt ſailed out of this Harbour five Tranſport Veſſels, with Families and Stock, to ſettle at Nova-Scotia, having Captain Rogers in an armed Brigantine, for their Convoy.

The General Aſſembly of this Colony have come to a Reſolution, to give every old Soldier who has, or ſhall inliſt, an additional Bounty of Forty Shillings; and alſo to the Soldiers, both old and new, Four Shillings per Month, in Addition to their monthly Wages.

PORTSMOUTH (New-Hampſhire) May 2.

We have certain Information, that a worthy and compaſſionate Gentleman at Exeter, in this Province, whoſe Name is not certainly known, put into the Contribution-Box, at the Rev. Mr. Rogers's Meeting-Houſe, at a Collection for the Sufferers in the late great Fire in Boſton, Twenty Pounds Sterling.

NEW-YORK, May 26.

We hear from Perth-Amboy, that the New-Jerſey Regiment is almoſt compleated, upwards of 800 Men having paſſed Muſter. One Company embarked for Albany on Thurſday laſt, and two more were preparing to embark for the ſame Place from Amboy, on Saturday laſt.

By a private Letter from Boſton we learn, That one of his Majeſty's Frigates had arrived there from the River St. Lawrence, and brought Advice, that the French had actually inveſted Quebec with a large Body of Men, and that they had taken a Redoubt; but that the whole Engliſh Garriſon ſallying on them, they were obliged to quit it, and retreat, but not without a great many being killed on both Sides.

We hear that his Majeſty's Ship Scarborough will ſail on a Cruize in a Day or two.

PHILADELPHIA, May 29.

Extract of a Letter from Charles-Town, in South-Carolina, dated May 5, 1760.

"Our Army, under the Command of Colonel Montgomery, is advanced to the Congarees, 140 Miles from hence. The Waggons for his Proviſions will be collected in a few Days; but the Weather has been ſo dry for ſome Time paſt, that it is feared the ſmall Rivulets, which would be very convenient for watering the Horſes and Cattle that attend the Troops, will, in many Places, fail, which will make their Marches very fatiguing. We are in Hopes they will reach Keowee by the End of this Month. The Garriſon at Fort Loudoun, in the Cherokees, to prepare for the worſt, have, for ſome Time paſt, been put to the ſhort Allowance of a Pint of Corn a Day to a Man.

They were attacked on the 20th of March by all the Overhill Cherokees, except the Little Carpenter, and his Family, who are retired into the Woods, to avoid being Witneſs to a Scene he cannot prevent; and the Great Warrior Ocunnoſtota, who went out to hunt down the River above 100 Miles. The Enemy kept an inceſſant Firing for four Days and Nights, without doing any Damage. At preſent they ſeem to ceaſe their Hoſtilities; but we have Intelligence, that they have ſent down to New Orleans, to the Tawas or Outawas, and Nontooyas, and other French Indians, for Aſſiſtance. Their Intention ſeems to be to amuſe us, by making ſome Propoſals for Peace, which are ſo very trifling, that they muſt think ſtrange in us to accept; therefore we conclude, it is only to gain Time, till their Meſſengers return.

"The Creek Indians ſeem, in general, inclined to obſerve their Plan of Neutrality; but we are endeavouring to prevail on ſome of them to go againſt the Cherokees, led on by ſome bold Engliſhmen, who have got Commiſſions, and are to have good Pay. This would make a very good Diverſion on one Side, while Colonel Montgomery attacks them in Front, and muſt throw the Cherokees into great Conſternation and Confuſion.

"The Nations of Indians that ſurround us are ſo numerous, and the French ſo near the Creeks and Choctaws, that it requires the greateſt Attention to the whole Syſtem of Indian Politicks, to extricate ourſelves from this critical Situation, in which we are at preſent entangled."

On Sunday laſt the Pennſylvania Frigate, Capt. Leech, fell down on a Cruize, for the Protection of the Trade of this Province.
